Introduction

This booklet contains the proposed fees and charges for Council services from 1 October 2020 to 30 June 2021.

In response to the Covid-19 pandemic Council has implemented programs to support the community and businesses. This includes deferring the fee increases until 1 October 2020 and waiving fees for outdoor dining on footpaths. The actual fees are reflected in the booklet, however will not be levied on businesses until 1 January 2021.

Glen Street Theatre and the Domestic Waste Service pricing is at the rear of the document. Glen Street Theatre's ticketing is adjusted on calendar year basis. As such pricing is from 1 July to 31 December 2020 and 1 January to 30 June 2021. The pricing of the remaining services of the Theatre are adjusted on 1 October 2020. The column header indicates the period to which the fee applies.

The Domestic Waste Service is funded from an annual charge. This charge applies as at 1 July 2020 and is based on the cost of the service for the 2020/21 financial year.

Under s356 of the Local Government Act, Council will offer a subsidy to ratepayers equivalent to 50% of the increase in Domestic Waste Charges. This subsidy totals $2.140 million.

The full cost of the service is reflected in the Fees and Charges booklet and the subsidy will be applied to the charge.

Fees adopted by Council after 1 October 2020 are included at the rear of the document.
