RE: DA2019/0278 - 1 / 1 Moore Road FRESHWATER NSW 2096

Hi there,

I just wanted to add my message of support for the Skywood bouldering gym. I am currently living in Fairlight, and will be moving together with my girlfriend in July to a new apartment. We have been looking around Manly, Freshwater, Dee Why etc. to find our perfect place on the Northern Beaches. Upon hearing about the bouldering gym being constructed, and being keen climbers (my other half is the Australian climbing team physio), we ultimately have decided that Freshwater is where we would move to.

We did notice when looking around Freshwater that numerous businesses have either closed down, or are relocating to Manly, and I think that the opening of the proposed climbing facility would really benefit the area, bringing with it new attention from the burgeoning Sydney climbing scene.

I have heard rumors that the project is being opposed, which is disappointing to hear - as such I wanted to voice my support for it. Whether or not this project goes ahead is very likely to sway our initial decision on whether we move to Freshwater or not, so I am very hopeful that it can go ahead.

Happy to receive further correspondence, I look forward to hearing back in relation to this project.

cheers,

Shane
