

The log cabin was built in the 1930s by Mr Robert Penniman as an annexe to his nearby holiday home. Pittwater Council requested that we allow it to become a local heritage item and assured us that this would not in any way affect the way we used it as a habitable dwelling. We are not proposing any alterations at all.