I am writing to support the application.

A change in the start trading time from 8:30 am to 8 am will have little or no affect outside the site. It will simply reduce the frustration of people who come along at 8 or 8:15 and then have to be told they cannot purchase even though the stalls are set up and ready to go. Council could check with the Rangers.

The idea that the consent would not be extended in a world where one of the two major national priorities is to help business re-establish itself does not bear thinking about. Many people look to the market to shop for food and for their livelihood while a few have set their minds against it.
