The “new” plans are even UGLIER than previous plans. This architect is absolutely clueless of the charm and beauty of Palm Beach. It will overpower Barrenjoey House and will destroy this beautiful little town. Please do not allow this to go ahead!!!! They must think the people of Palm Beach are stupid, by submitting almost identical plans every time. Do they not get it, the whole plan needs to be scrapped and replaced with something that will fit into the beautiful landscape and heritage architecture of Palm Beach, and not this ugly piece of SOULESS, lazy architecture. It looks like it has been done by someone who got mediocre marks in architecture school.
