ANNEXURE 'A' – Acoustic Report – 11 April 2024

3. The installation, design and ongoing maintenance of the Club's closed circuit television (CCTV) system

Pittwater RSL Club currently operates a comprehensive closed circuit television system.

There is currently a minimum total of one hundred and sixty cameras maintained and operating at all times. These cameras are attached to digital video recorders and record a minimum of six (6) frames per second.

This allows for continuity of supervision throughout the entire public area of the Club including all public indoor, outdoor and the Pickleball Courts area.

In addition to this these cameras monitor all public accessible areas around the perimeter of the Club. This includes each public external entrance and exit egress.

All video recordings will be maintained digitally and whilst a minimum standard of thirty (30) days archiving will take place it is anticipated the system may allow for up to forty two (42) days of archiving.

The system will be attached to an existing uninterrupted power supply with six (6) KVA Capacity.

The system will be maintained internally with daily inspections conducted to ensure continuity of recording.

Where continuity of recording is interrupted and unable to be rectified Pittwater RSL Club will engage a licensed electronic security maintenance company to service the equipment.

Where recording is interrupted for a period excess of one (1) hour, management will contact Mona Vale Police Station and notify them of the recording interruption.

Each Customer Service Manager has the capacity to review closed circuit television recordings and provide access to NSW Police or Regulatory Officers upon request.

All recordings have the capacity to be reproduced on USB disk drive or DVD within twenty four hours of request by NSW Police or Regulatory Officers.

4. Security supervision of the premises including but not limited to the quiet and good order dispersal of patrons

Pittwater RSL Club engages contract security providers to assist with the supervision of the quiet and good order of the Club.

At the time of this plan Exact Security Pty Ltd (ABN: 59145614599) are contracted to Pittwater RSL Club.

Exact Security Pty Ltd are the holders of a NSW Security Master License in accordance with the Security Industry Act 1997. Master License No. 410350353.

Licensed security guards supervise Pittwater RSL Club each day between 6pm and 3am.

In addition, security guards or in their absence Customer Service Managers will supervise the quiet and good order and patrol the Pickleball Courts continuously whilst the area is operating.

(a) Pittwater RSL Club Door/Concierge Procedures

The Registered Clubs Act governs the right of entry to patrons into the Club.

Patrons who attend our Club qualify for entry as either a member, guest of a member or temporary member.

A definition of each is as follows:

- Member – A person who has had their membership approved by the Board of Directors and is financial for the current year.
- Guest of a member – A person who attends the Club as a guest of a financial member and who will remain in the immediate presence of that financial member for the duration of their visit.
- Temporary member – A person can qualify for temporary membership when you are satisfied they reside outside the 5 kilometre radius, or are a member of an affiliated Club (Community Club), or are participating in an organised sporting event ie Lawn Bowls.

The following procedures should be followed to ensure we comply with the entry provisions of the Registered Clubs Act.

Door / Concierge Staff should:

- Welcome members and guests ensuring they are referred to as 'sir' or 'madam'.
- Assess members and guests as to their right to entry by:
 - (i) Member – Current Membership Card
 - (ii) Guest of a Member - In the immediate presence of a Member
 - (iii) Temporary Member – Member of an affiliated Club, participating in a formal organised sporting event, or resides outside the five (5) km radius as detailed on the map displayed at each principal entrance.
- Ensure persons qualifying as a member's guest will remain in the presence of a member for the duration they remain in the Club.
- Ensure persons qualifying as a member's guest either have their driver's license scanned into the Clubs electronic guest of a member register or complete the guest of a member register ensuring the register is endorsed with the full name of the guest, their residential address, and the accompanying member signs the register.
- Ensure persons qualifying as a temporary member produce evidence that they are a member of an affiliated Club ie. current membership card, participating in an organised sporting event, or reside outside the five (5) kilometre radius ie. Drivers License.
- Ensure persons qualifying as a temporary member either have their driver's license scanned into the Clubs electronic temporary members register or complete the temporary members register ensuring the register is endorsed with the full name of the temporary member, residential address and signature.
- If any person is entering the premises and are unable to qualify for entry, politely deny entry, and offer full membership up-selling the facilities of the Club.

- Inspect identification of all persons suspected of being under the age of eighteen years. Acceptable identification must be either:
 - (i) Current Drivers License
 - (ii) Current Australian Passport
 - (iii) Current Proof of Age Card
- Assess members and guests entering the Club as to their sobriety.
- If member or guest is entering the premises and appears intoxicated, politely deny entry. In the event the member or guest debates the denial of entry notify Security or in their absence a Customer Service Manager.
- Assess members and guests in accordance with current Club 'dress regulations'.
- If member or guest is entering the premises and does not comply with dress regulations, politely deny entry and explain. In the event the member or guest debates the denial of entry notify Security or in their absence a Customer Service Manager.
- Ensure the reception door area is free of hazard, and all hazards are isolated or removed at the first opportunity.
- Assist members and guests leaving the Club and offer alternate transport services such as Courtesy Bus.
- Assist handicapped and elderly members or guests ensuring continuity of their entry and passage to their desired location within the Club.
- Carry and maintain an entertainment and promotion schedule allowing prompt advice to members and guests.
- Assess members or guests leaving the Club for any possible impact on the quiet and good order of the neighbourhood.
- Any instance where members or guests are identified as a potential threat to the quiet and good order of the neighbourhood should be notified to Security or in their absence a Customer Service Manager.

Security should:

- Assume role of door / concierge in the absence of a door / concierge staff member.
- Upon the request of a door / concierge staff member attend the reception area immediately.
- In the event a member or guest is debating the assessment for entry by a door / concierge staff member, consult with the staff member regarding their assessment.
- Notify Customer Service Manager of your intention to request a member or guest to leave.
- Inform member or guest of the reason they are being asked to leave.
- If intoxicated, offer alternate transport services. ie. Taxi or Rideshare etc.
- If a member or guest fails to comply with request, and there is no immediate threat, caution regarding provisions of 'fail to quit' and subsequent $550.00 fine.
- Call police and request to attend.
- Any instance where members or guests are identified as a potential threat to the quiet and good order of the neighbourhood, security should notify police and attempt to supervise as far as practicable the exit of those members or guests.
- Only physically evict or restrain a member or guest when there is an immediate threat and no other means available to ensure the immediate safety of any one of the following: -

1. Staff member;

2. Member or guest;
3. The Clubs assets;
4. Themselves.

- Use appropriate 'non-armed combat' techniques to effect the eviction. ie. wrist locks.
- Use only as much force as is reasonably necessary to effect the eviction.
- Submit incident report to the Service Manager prior to end of shift.
- All Security Officers involved to record details of incident in official notebook.
- Should there be serious behavioural breaches by a member they should be notified of citation arrangements.

Customer Service Managers should:

- Ensure operating procedures are adhered to.
- Conduct regular audits of registers ensuring procedures are adhered to.
- Assume role of Security when not on premises.

- Delegate the responsibility of security in their absence;
- Report any adverse incidents to the Service Manager.

7. Carpark egress, supervision and security

The Clubs carpark entry and exit egresses are currently supervised by closed circuit television.

Existing closed circuit television has the capacity to identify vehicles entering and exiting the carpark, pedestrian egress to and from the carpark, and pedestrian and vehicle activity between the carpark and the Club entrance.

The carpark shall have sufficient lighting in place which will assist the safe egress for patrons and be at a standard where any adverse or criminal activity can be identified through existing closed circuit television.

Inspections will be conducted daily of the lighting in the carpark to ensure its operational readiness.

After 6.00pm each day during trading hours at intervals not exceeding sixty (60) minutes;

Security should undertake a foot patrol of the Club's carpark and ensure:

- The safety of patrons;
- The safety of staff;
- The quiet and good order of the neighbourhood is maintained.

8. The installation and maintenance of signage advising patrons to maintain the quiet and good order of the neighbourhood

The Club will ensure a sign is maintained outside the principal entrance of the Club which states the following:

'Patrons are reminded that whilst leaving the Club they should refrain from behaviour which may impact on the quiet and good order of the neighbourhood. The Club maintains comprehensive closed circuit television and should the Club receive any report of anti-social behaviour within the vicinity of the Club police will be notified.'

Additionally, the Club will ensure a sign is maintained in each public outdoor area which states the following:

'Pittwater RSL Club is committed to the quiet and good order of the neighbourhood and respectfully request patrons minimise noise as much as possible whilst remaining in this area. Failure to do so may result in you being requested to leave the Club.'

9. Training of staff in relation to the responsible service of alcohol, and first aid

a) Responsible Service of Alcohol

Liquor Regulation 2008

Regulation 40

(2) The licensee of licensed premises must not cause or permit a staff member to sell, supply or serve liquor by retail on the premises unless the staff member holds a recognised RSA certificate.

Maximum penalty: 50 penalty units.

Pittwater RSL Club is compelled by and complies with Regulation 40 that all staff engaged in the sale or supply of liquor hold current certification.

Pittwater RSL Club may from time to time require staff to participate in refresher training in Responsible Service of Alcohol.

b) First Aid

Trained first aiders are available at the Club throughout all hours of trade.

Additionally, as a requirement of the Security Industry Act, all licensed security also maintain current first aid certification.

The Club maintains first aid kits strategically throughout the Club.

10. Alternative Transport

The club is well serviced by local taxi companies, and ride share services.

Our concierge employees assist customers to summon taxis and ride share services, and customers are encouraged to remain in the comfort of our reception area, pending their arrival. Adequate seating is provided for this.

Management continues to foster strong relationships with taxi providers, ride share companies, and public transport representatives, to ensure the continuity of safety for our customers to their homes upon departure, and ensuring the quiet and good order of the neighbourhood.

11. Waste Disposal

Waste and recyclable materials generated by the provision of the Clubs facilities to its members and their guests will be disposed of in accordance with current standards and ensure that such management of waste does not pose a threat to public health or the environment.

This includes undertaking regular inspections of all areas including outdoor smoking terraces and ensuring tobacco waste products are disposed of regularly.
