Dear Sir / Madam

Ref: DA2018/1708
195 – 97 Sydney Road, Fairlight
Proposed Boarding House Development

As a local resident, I strongly object to this high density dwelling being considered. Not only will it bring unwelcome congestion & noise but the nature of such a dwelling so close to our children & schools is simply unacceptable. There have already been a number of "white van" incidences near Manly West School for which Manly is wholly under-policed to deal with; there is clearly no way they will be able to cope with the fallout from this socio-economic category. By way of further illustration there is a smashed car opposite Cohen Street which has been sticking out into the road for 3 weeks now and a spate of graffiti has been observed. This development should not go ahead in such a family friendly suburb and will be objected to in the highest ways possible.

Regards
Steve Davies
