IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The application will be on display for the minimum statutory period of 28 days.

Submissions can be made to Council during this period. A submission must specify the grounds for objection.

Any person who objects to the development and is dissatisfied with the determination of the consent authority to grant development consent, may appeal to the Court, where the application was not subject to a public hearing held by the Independent Planning Commission.

If the Independent Planning Commission holds a public hearing on this application, the Commission's determination of the application is final and not subject to appeal.

A copy of the Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) may be inspected at Council offices (Dee Why, Manly, Mona Vale and Avalon) during normal business hours.

The application and the documents accompanying the application, including any environmental impact statement, are available on Council's Application Tracking for the minimum period required under the Act.
