RE: Mod2021/0203 - 1102 Barrenjoey Road PALM BEACH NSW 2108

I'm all for developments but unfortunately I don't think this one is right for this area in particular. It will very much ruin the seaside casual aesthetic that makes the area so wonderful and different from other areas of Sydney.

I see why the developer thinks it is a good idea and I understand that the area could be used better than it is currently but I don't think this proposal is what the area deserves.
