RE: DA2022/0469 - 1102 Barrenjoey Road PALM BEACH NSW 2108

This amended development design is no improvement on their last development application where bulk, size, scale, length, height were all non complaint with council planning rules. This building is unattractive and not in style with Palm Beach's character. It is abominable that this design could ever be accepted and approved by council. It is ugly, and too big, completely dwarfing beautiful iconic Barrenjoey House. Please advise the developers that they need to engage a different architect who is mindful, considerate and in touch with the Palm Beach area.
