I am writing to stress how important it is to give the traders at the market in Mona Vale a fair go and allow them a more traditional start sale time of 7:30 am. Without this they are losing one-fifth of their potential income.

To achieve a 7:30 am start sale time they have to be allowed on site at 6 am.

In addition many customers complain they cannot shop early enough to get on with their other Sunday morning activities.

It's only fair to everyone particularly now when we have proved the market causes no disruptions.
