Re: organic markets being held at Pittwater RSL, Mona Vale.

I am a nearby resident, I believe this is a great spot for the well established organic market to relocate.

As a working mum I rely on weekend markets to provide fresh organic produce to our family, as I'm sure many residents of the Northern Beach would also.

This site would be ideal with most direct neighbouring sites being industrial, therefore less invasive to the weekends of residents.

Pittwater RSL is a great family friendly place, but also quite central to the northern end of the Beaches, therefore attracting some potential extra tourism to the area as there are countless activities nearby to follow on with after a morning at the markets.

In closing I would like to say I truly look forward to the markets relocating to Pittwater RSL.

Regards

Alison
