NOTES

For Completing Interim/Final Fire Safety Certificate

- Note 1 An interim fire safety certificate or a final fire safety certificate is required before:
- interim occupation certificate can be issued to allow a partially completed new building (including an altered portion of, or an extension to, a new building) to be occupied or used, or
  - an interim occupation certificate can be issued to allow a change of building use for part of an existing building.
- A final fire safety certificate is required:
- before a final occupation certificate can be issued to allow a new building (including an altered portion of, or extension to, a new building) to be occupied or used, or
  - before a final occupation certificate can be issued to allow a change of building use for an existing building, or
  - in accordance with a fire safety order given by Council.

An interim fire safety certificate is issued for part of the building and may deal only with those essential fire safety measures appearing on the most recent fire safety schedule (see note 3) relevant to the part of the building for which an interim occupation certificate will be sought.

A final fire safety certificate must deal with all essential fire safety measures appearing on the most recent fire safety schedule (see note 3), subject to the following.

An interim fire safety certificate or a final fire safety certificate need not deal with those essential fire safety measures which have been the subject of some other final fire safety certificate or annual fire safety statement within the previous 6 months, unless the person or authority responsible for determining the relevant development consent, complying development certificate, construction certificate or fire safety order, has specified otherwise in the schedule (See also Note 3).

- Note 2 The person who carries out the assessment:
- must inspect and verify the performance of each fire safety measure being assessed, and
  - in the case of a (interim or final) fire safety certificate for a new building (not an alteration to, or enlargement or extension of an existing building) must test the operation of each item of fire safety equipment installed in the building.
- Note 3 The relevant essential fire safety measures are those specified in the most recent fire safety schedule, attached to one of the following:
- development consent for a change of building use,
  - complying development certificate for the erection of a building or a change of building use,
  - construction certificate for proposed building work, including building work associated with a change of building use, or
  - a fire safety order.

The fire safety schedule will also identify the required standard of performance for each essential fire safety measure.

Dear Shahe,

Subject: Multi-Purpose Hall at Galstaun College, 5 Chiltern Rd, Ingleside
ENGINEERS CERTIFICATE FOR STRUCTURAL INSPECTIONS – STAGE 1

I certify that I carried out periodic, engineering inspections of the structural work listed below for the multi-purpose hall stage 1 at the above address and that at the time of the inspection the structures inspected appeared to be in accordance with the design intent of the structural drawings and later structural engineering advice provided during construction.

During construction, I carried out the following engineering inspections. The date of the inspection is given in brackets.

- Foundation material (16/08/2011)
- Steel reinforcement for the reinforced concrete pile and pad footings (16/08/2011)
- Steel reinforcement for reinforced concrete slab on ground (16/09/2011)
- Structural steel framing (30/09/2011, 23/05/2012, 13/12/2011, 29/04/2013, 11/02/2014, 16/4/2014)

This certificate assumes the construction was carried out by a licensed builder who has experience in this type of work. The above inspections do not, in any way whatsoever, relieve the builder of his responsibility.

The above inspections do not include inspections for contract administration purposes (e.g. progress payments), cosmetic matters and work that, once the competence of the builder has been established, is reasonable for the builder to supervise.

Yours sincerely,

Hi George,

Thanks for your revised list of outstanding items. I will work to ensure the balance of information is forwarded to you as soon as possible.

With regard to the Hydrant, however, this fixture was part of the existing College infrastructure (only the fire hose reel inside the MPH was added). Do you still require an installation certificate, or does the fire services certificate (dated after the construction of the MPH) meet your requirements?

Regards,
