Dear Sir/Madam,

I am the owner of Lot 10 (Unit 7) at 97 Sydney Road, and after reviewing the plans, I would like to object as the plans do not look correct especially the car parks.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Best regards,

Lea & Naresh Sakhrani

Prior to making a submission

You should inspect the plans and read the accompanying information so you are clear on the details. Should the applicant be your neighbor, you may be able to clarify any details or resolve any concerns by discussing it with them. If you decide to make a submission, please remember:

Council's assessment involves a process of balancing your legitimate concerns and the reasonable development rights of the applicant. Council has to evaluate both within a statutory planning framework and, in some cases may apply conditions to overcome legitimate planning issues.

Council is interested in your specific issues and these are best expressed in your own words and need not rely on lengthy references to provisions of planning instruments (LEPs and DCPs) – these references may distract from your immediate concerns.

When considering an application, Council will have regard to:

- Statutory requirement under the act;
- Adopted policies of Council; and
- Issues raised in written submissions.

Privacy and Personal Information and Government Information (Public Access) Act 2009 (GIPA) and submissions marked confidential

Any written submission you make is open to public scrutiny under GIPA. It will be available on Council's website and may be used in Council reports or court proceedings. In this regard, your comments should be restricted to the proposed development. Comments of a personal defamatory nature should be excluded and Council accepts no responsibility in this regard. In making a submission, you do so at your own risk. If you would like your submission to be kept confidential, you must provide reasons as to why your submission should not be made public and be marked "CONFIDENTIAL" for Council's considerations.

Amended Plans

If plans are amended you may be notified if Council's assessing officer considers the changes have greater impact on your property than the original. All existing submissions made in respect of an application will be considered.
