

Hi Ben, I have attached some photos of new plant that has been installed in an existing garbage room to the rear of the Woolworths site. I am concerned that this piece of equipment will be a source of noise generation and have a deleterious impact on the public space of Market lane. I had understood that new plant and equipment must be located so as not to be a source of noise to adjacent spaces.

Regards

