This is a screenshot of a media player window. The main content area shows a 3D architectural rendering of a window with three panes. The window is set against a dark grey background. A large, dark grey shadow is cast across the window and the background, originating from the left side. The shadow is cast by the window frame and the panes. The left pane has a diagonal line across it, and the right pane also has a diagonal line. The shadow is cast onto the window and the background. The media player interface includes a title bar at the top with 'Media Player', a progress bar at the bottom with a time display of '0:00:04', and a control bar at the bottom with various icons for play, stop, next, previous, volume, and search. The text 'Existing Shadows - 4 Loftus Street - Angle 2 - 5min (002)' is displayed in the bottom left corner, and '21/06/2024 3:00 PM' is displayed in the bottom center.
