RE: DA2018/0149 - 60 Binalong Avenue ALLAMBIE HEIGHTS NSW 2100

These are not boarding houses - they are mini studio apartments being passed off as boarding houses by the developer in order to get his proposal approved. Allambie Heights is a quiet mainly single dwelling suburb with a lack of public transport which is required for a building that has so little parking allocated. There is already a lack of parking in the streets available. Other suburbs which already have boarding houses are seeing rents around the $500 mark per week - this is not affordable housing. Stop this over development of quiet family suburbs.
