Dear Lashda,

I realise submission time for DA1274/2017 is over.....can only hope my previous dispatch directed to you will get through the system. Sorry, but dreadful problems at this end.

The link below is a one minute 'trailer' I had intended to titivate the appetite readers access John Ilingsworth's full, 4 minute tender little story about the first meeting between an old Aboriginal woman and an early English Sea Captain/explorer.

It was my intention to 'speak' to it via a supporting submission: any chance of extending a 'get out of gaol card'....?

Best Regards
