Building these high rise apartment in such an enviromentally valuable area is both selfish and reckless. There is a reason no one trusts politicians anymore. Because you are all greedy and only care about money and looking after your rich mates. Who you regard to be more important than the little people your have foolishly been elected to represent. We won't be making the mistake of voting you into power again. As you abuse the privilege that comes with it. This time put the peoples needs ahead of your rich mates wants. And say no to these high rise buildings. Before its too late.
