

WASTE MANAGEMENT PLAN

10 Florida Road, Palm Beach NSW 2108

|                            |                                                   |       |            |                        |
|----------------------------|---------------------------------------------------|-------|------------|------------------------|
| Demolition   | Stored on site                                    | 3-4m3 | Bingo Bins | 80% Recycle            |
|                            | Timber                                            | 2 m3  |            |                        |
|                            | Organic Matter                                    | 60m3  |            |                        |
|                            | Concrete                                          | 1 m3  |            |                        |
| Construction | Stored within Property Boundary                   | 2m3   | Bingo Bins | 80% Recycle            |
|                            | Concrete                                          | 1 m3  |            |                        |
|                            | Bricks                                            | 1/2m3 |            |                        |
| Completion   | Stored within Property Boundary                   |       | Bingo Bins | Recycle where possible |
| On Going     | Council collection for domestic waste as existing |       |            |                        |

All material to be sorted into categories, i.e. Timber, bricks, concrete, etc.
Once at the waste disposal centre, to be disposed of and recycled where possible,

During construction, material to be stored and covered.

During transportation, all loads to be covered by contractor en route to Recycling/waste depot.